※The number of participants in information sessions etc. is limited, so it may be impossible to join certain events. The number of visitors is usually highest in the mornings.

Please note that program starting times differ per faculty.

Open campus programs and university brochures will be distributed at the entrance of the campus. Please make sure to pick up a copy when you arrive.

No parking available. Please come by public transport.

The weather may be extremely hot during the Open Campus days. Please make sure to drink enough water and take breaks to avoid heat stroke.

☆ For those who would like to attend the information sessions of the Faculty of Economics and Faculty of Literature and Human Sciences:

Advance registration is needed for the information sessions of the Faculty of Economics on 6 and 7 August from 9:15~10:50 (including the student-organized event taking place at the same time) and the AM information sessions of the Faculty of Literature and Human Sciences on 6 and 7 August.

For details, please see our homepage. For other sessions advance registration is not necessary.

For parents and guardians

When capacity for information sessions, mini-lectures etc. is limited, priority will be given to prospective students over accompanying parents.
